

If you have a child who stutters, take advantage of these helpful opportunities developed by NSA's team of professionals

Guide for early intervention

Information for parents of preschoolers

Parent hot-line

Help from those who have been there

Parent-child workshops

NSA "youth days" are life-changing experiences for children and their parents

The latest developments in stuttering therapy and research

In each issue of NSA's newsletter, Letting Go

Informational books and pamphlets

Covering all aspects of childhood stuttering

Annual national conference

Three days of activities and support for families and children

Professional organizations

Ongoing working relationships with leading speech-language pathologists

Stuttering research support

Teaming with top researchers to discover what is best for your child

School classroom "acceptance" kit

Team with your teacher to decrease teasing and increase acceptance

On-line connection for teens who stutter

Addressing "hot topics" for the adolescent years (secure and supervised)

Therapy resource and referral list

Learn about summer programs and therapy options for your child

"Stutter Buddies" newsletter for children who stutter

Children learn they are not alone

"CARE" newsletter for parents of preschool children who stutter

The only newsletter dedicated to addressing parents' concerns

"Our Voice"

A section of our monthly newsletter written by teens for teens

Professional guidance

Avoid fads and "miracle cures"

Parent-to-parent liaisons

Meet and talk with parents who understand your concerns

E-mail and Web connections

Help you keep in touch

Transitional support

Preschool to school-age, pre-teen to teen, and through adulthood

And much more...

Every month there is something you and your child should know about!

It is all yours for less than $3.00 per month with an NSA family membership

National Stuttering Association

Meeting the needs of children who stutter and their families

18 Ways the NSA can Help You Help Your Child

NSA is the largest self-help/support organization in the world devoted to stuttering.

Who knows more about stuttering than people who stutter? We understand your needs and concerns.

First-hand knowledge, combined with the research and experience of leading speech-language pathologists, educators and other medical professionals, provide a steady flow of valuable information.

All of this information is shared freely with NSA members.

Just look at the important benefits inside...

National Stuttering Association

4071 East La Palma Avenue, Suite A
Anaheim, CA 92807

1-800-we stutter ♦ Fax: 1-714-630-7707
937-8888

Email: nsastutter@aol.com

Visit our web site: www.westutter.org

Do you ask yourself:

- ♦ Does my child have a stuttering problem?
- ♦ Will my child do well in school?
- ♦ How do I handle the reactions of others?
- ♦ Can I afford therapy?
- ♦ Where do I get more information?
- ♦ How do I help my child feel good about himself or herself?

You are not alone.
We are here to help.

National Stuttering Association

We brighten the world for people who stutter